

Name: Federica De Giorgi

Country: Italy

Institution: UNIMED - Mediterranean Universities Union

Role: Assistant Project Manager

E-mail: f.degiorgi@uni-med.net

Federica De Giorgi has obtained both her Bachelor Degree and her Master Degree in Classics at the University of Roma Tre (Italy). After obtaining her 2nd Master in European Project Planning and Management at Pixel -International Education and Training Institution-, she has worked in Liège (Belgium) at the association INFOREF - Initiatives pour une formation efficace, as European Project Assistant mainly in Education and mobility of foreign students both in the Belgian and European schools and universities. Since September 2015 she has been working in UNIMED (Mediterranean Universities Union) mainly on activities related to the mobility and employability of the students of Universities' UNIMED partners, as well as organizing UNIMED international events. She also collaborates with several schools and organizations working on the topic of mobility, employment, migration and political asylum, such as European Alternatives, PRISM - Promozione Internazionale Sicilia Mondo, HUMANA People to people in Latvia, Inter Alia and Migranti Solidali.