

Name: Mohammad Najjar

Country: Palestine

Institution: ANNU - An-Najah National University

Role: Director of the Project Management Unit

E-mail: m.najjar@najah.edu

Mohammad Najjar is the Director of the Project Management Unit (PMU) at An-Najah National University. He is also a full time Assistant Professor at the Department of Business Administration, School of Economics and Social Studies at An-Najah. Dr. Najjar holds a B.Sc. in Computer Engineering along with an MBA degree. He received his Ph.D. in Management Science from Lancaster University Management School (LUMS), Lancaster University, UK. Furthermore, Dr. Najjar has broad experience in leading projects as he has worked with several national and international organizations, such as the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ), Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA), American-Palestinian Chamber of Commerce (AmCham), Jawwal, and PalTel.

As an extension to his role in setting forth the strategy and roadmap for PMU, Dr. Najjar is currently focusing on designing and developing sustainable approaches to enhance the quality and management of projects, mainly in the educational sector. His approach to development revolves around innovation, while providing efficient and cutting-edge solutions that can be scaled and sustained. His current research interest focuses on project management, sustainable operations, and supply chain management.