

Name: Nidal Dweikat

Country: Palestine

Institution: ANNU - An-Najah National University

Role: Vice-President for Quality and Planning

E-mail: nidal_n@najah.edu

Dr. Nidal Dweikat joined An-Najah National University as a top student in the Mechanical Engineering BSc programme. In 2006, he became a teaching and research assistant, then he obtained his MSc in Industrial and Management Engineering- Quality Management Division from the Polytechnic University of Turin, Italy in 2008. Afterwards, he returned to Palestine and joined An-Najah again as a teaching staff in the Industrial Engineering Department. Dr. Dweikat also obtained his PhD in Industrial and Management Engineering- Strategic Operations Management Division from KTH Royal Institute of Technology of Stockholm, Sweden in 2016. Once again, he joined An-Najah and had other positions in Luleå University of Technology (LTU) and KTH where he supervised a number of MSc theses in addition to teaching and conducting research. Dr. Dwaikat has an extensive experience in planning, development and quality assurance as he worked in several local and international institutions as a business development consultant and quality management system consultant. For example, he worked in the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO), the Palestinian Federation Of Industries, PADICO Holding, Palestine Plastic Industries Company, ID Management Consultants (IDMC), Ritaj Managerial Solutions, the National Carton Industry Company and Palestine Poultry Company in addition of being a member in the board of directors of several public shareholding companies.